ADMINISTRATIVE BUREAU

The Administrative Bureau is comprised of Accreditation, Records, Chaplains, Research and Development, Information Technology, Payroll, Fiscal Services and Volunteer Services.

PROPERTY AND EVIDENCE DIVISION

The Property and Evidence Division is responsible for ensuring the integrity of evidence and property recovered by Rockford Police.

FISCAL SERVICES DIVISION

The Fiscal Services DIVISION manages the Police Department's purchases, accounts payable, and accounts receivable. The section also maintains an inventory of uniforms and police equipment, monitors the Department's equipment budget, researches the purchase of law enforcement equipment, prepares bid specifications, and oversees contracts with vendors.

RECORDS DIVISION

The Records Division is responsible for providing timely and accurate information from the thousands of reports that the Rockford Police Department keeps on file. The Records Division also compiles statistics and reports them to the State of Illinois and the FBI as outlined by the National Incident-Based Reporting Standards (NIBRS).

RECRUITING DIVISION

The Recruiting Division is responsible for finding and attracting candidates for the position of sworn police officer for the department.

OPERATIONS BUREAU

The Rockford Police Department's Operations Bureau has vast responsibilities, encompassing several aspects of the work that keep Rockford safe by enforcing the law while respecting the rights of citizens.

The Operations Bureau is comprised of three patrol districts: the Traffic Unit, K9 Unit, Community Services Unit, and the Resident Officers Community Keepers (ROCK). Each district is under the command of the following:

- Assistant Deputy Chief Joe Stevens, District 1
- Assistant Deputy Chief Randy Berke, District 2
- Assistant Deputy Chief Eddie Torrance, District 3

INVESTIGATIONS BUREAU

The Rockford Police Department Investigations Bureau is responsible for conducting follow up investigations on all criminal incidents. The bureau is under the command of Assistant Deputy Chief Ty Eagleson and is staffed by day and afternoon shifts, and on-call detectives. The Investigations Bureau is comprised of the following units: crime scene, domestic violence, financial and property crimes, gang, narcotics, property and evidence, sensitive crimes and violent crimes. The bureau is also staffed by patrol officers of the following units: Intelligence and the Specialized Community Oriented Policing Enforcement teams (SCOPE). The SCOPE unit handles multiple investigations at a time and they help relieve the burden on regular patrol units.

OFFICE OF PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

The Rockford Police Department Office of Professional Standards (OPS) is under the overall command of Deputy Chief Reffett. The Office of Professional Standards consists of Internal Affairs and Administrative Review Processes.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Reducing Crime: One of the primary mandates of any police department is to reduce crime rates and enhance public safety. This objective involves implementing data-driven strategies, predictive policing techniques, and allocating resources effectively. By analyzing crime data, police departments can identify emerging trends and allocate resources to address them proactively, thus minimizing the occurrence of criminal activities. Collaborative efforts with other law enforcement agencies, as well as community partnerships, play a vital role in these endeavors.

Community Engagement: Building trust and rapport with the community is paramount for effective law enforcement. The Rockford Police Department prioritizes engaging with community members through various initiatives such as town hall meetings, and community meetings. We use these platforms to provide an avenue for open dialogue between law enforcement and residents, enabling the department to address local concerns, gather intelligence, and tailor its efforts to the specific needs of each neighborhood.

Using Technology: In the digital age, leveraging technology is pivotal for the Rockford Police Department. The integration of advanced surveillance systems, gunshot detection software, and body-worn cameras can significantly enhance response times, evidence collection, and accountability. Moreover, the development and usage of user-friendly mobile applications (TIP 411) enables residents to report incidents and access safety resources conveniently, promoting a sense of partnership and shared responsibility in maintaining public safety.

Employee Development: Investing in employee development not only enhances the skills and knowledge of officers but also contributes to a culture of continuous improvement. Cross-training opportunities enable officers to gain diverse experiences, promoting interdisciplinary collaboration and adaptability. Offering tuition assistance programs encourages officers to pursue higher education and specialized training relevant to law enforcement, enriching the department's expertise and capabilities.
