

Historic Districts

As of January 2018, Rockford had designated the following six areas as local historic districts:

1. Haight Village. Area bounded by South Madison, Walnut and Kishwaukee Streets and the Union Pacific Railroad to the south.
2. Garfield Avenue. 600 through 900 blocks of Garfield Avenue.
3. Indian Terrace. Indian Terrace south of the Armory, and including Beattie Park.
4. Brown's Hills/Knightsville. This is most of the area lying between North Second Street on the west, Sinnissippi Park/Golf Course on the north, the Scandinavian Cemetery (Prospect Street) on the east and Rural Street on the south plus the four houses just north of the YMCA on the west side of North Second Street
5. Northeast State & Main. 201, 203 and 211 West State Street, plus 107 and 109 North Main Street.
6. Peacock Brewery. 200 Prairie Street plus Brewmaster's House (stone house) at Northwest corner of Prairie and Madison Streets.

In addition, six districts have been listed on the National Register of Historic Places. These are:

1. East Rockford. East State Street from the Rock River up to and including the Faust Landmark, north to Market Street and south to Walnut Street.
2. Haight Village. Generally the same area as the local district described plus the Watch Factory on the west side of Madison Street.
3. 7th Street Commercial. Generally, those properties fronting on 7th Street from Charles Street to Keith Creek.
4. Barber-Colman Company. All 11 structures remaining on the Barber Colman site on Rock Street.
5. West Downtown Rockford. Generally follows an irregular boundary from Park Avenue north as far south as Elm Street, and from the alley west of Church Street east to Wyman Street.
6. Garrison-Coronado-Haskell. Roughly bounded by Salem and Summer Streets on the north, Main and Court Streets on the east, Whitman and Fisher on the south and Ridge and North Avenue on the west.
