“Home Plate Compact” Softball Game to Highlight Unity between Community and Police

WHAT: The Rockford Police Department, as part of an initiative to cultivate and foster friendly relationships between Rockford residents and police invite the public to attend the second annual “Home Plate Compact”, a community softball game that brings together citizens with members of the department.

The event is organized by Don Wright, whose active stance against violence was reinforced when his son Brandon was murdered in 2011. Wright notes his belief in community policing as an effective and fun solution in achieving strengthened relationships, increased trust, and improved safety as a catalyst for this community event.

WHEN: Saturday, July 15, 2017
10:00am

WHERE: Marinelli Field
115 15th Avenue, Rockford, IL 61104
