Narrative

The Rockford Fire Department responded to a structure fire at 2723 Silent Wood Trail. First units arrived on scene within 5 minutes and reported heavy smoke and fire coming from a second floor window of an apartment building. A hose-line was stretched into the building to make an offensive attack on the fire. Crews encountered high heat inside the apartment, but were able to contain and extinguish the fire located in a bedroom. Firefighters safely removed a bedridden woman from a different lower apartment. There were no injuries to civilians or firefighters. The Red Cross responded and assisted with relocating 11 adults and 28 children to a local hotel. The fire remains under investigation and the estimated loss is at $100,000.
