Narrative

The Rockford Fire Department responded to a possible structure fire at 2929 Sunnyside Drive. First arriving companies found smoke coming from a third floor balcony of a large condominium complex. A small fire was located in one of the balconies and quickly extinguished. Facility maintenance personnel were present and had attempted to extinguish the fire prior to fire department arrival. Damage was contained to the outside of the structure and estimated at $5,000. The resident was not home at the time of the fire and there were no civilian or firefighter injuries. The fire investigator determined the cause to be accidental.
