About Rockford Community Partners

The Rockford Community Partners (RCP) network, formerly known as the City of Rockford's Economic Development, Education & Entrepreneurship Network (EDEEN), was launched in December 2011. The work of Rockford Community Partners is focused in five areas (New Narratives, Employment & Social Entrepreneurship, Beautification, Public Art, and Storefront, Business District Association and Neighborhood Development) and is comprised of a diverse group of partners working together to determine how to best support each other's efforts and the needs of the community.
