Rockford Police Announce New Dates for Fall 2017 Citizens Police Academy; Now Accepting Applications

ROCKFORD, Ill. – The Rockford Police Department announced today new dates for its Fall 2017 Citizens Police Academy. The academy will run every Tuesday from 6:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m., September 5 – November 14, 2017 at the Rockford Police Department District Station 2 located at 1410 Broadway. Graduation will be held on November 14,, 2017.

The mission of the Citizens Police Academy is to build cooperative relationships between citizens and the police through training and education. The police academy produces a network of informed citizens who can return to their neighborhoods to organize, encourage and mobilize others, and to partner with police in reducing crime in Rockford. The course curriculum includes sessions on patrol operations, 911 center operations, community policing, crime prevention through environmental design, crime analysis, criminal law, and city ordinances, among others. Interested citizens must be 18 years of age or older to participate.

Since the academy’s inception in 2009, the Rockford Police Department has trained more than 200 citizens and has 32 active police volunteers.
