Subject: Traffic Commission: Intersection of Brookfield & Abbotsford

Good morning Pablo,

I just spoke with Matt Becker 224-999-0544 regarding the intersection of Brookfield & Abbotsford. This intersection is not posted with a stop or yield sign, and Mr. Becker believes it necessary to have some sort of posting at this intersection to prevent an accident in this residential area.

Mr. Becker is interested in getting this item involved in the Traffic Commission meeting for February. Can you please contact him and make arrangements for this upcoming meeting, if possible?

Thank you!

Just to keep everyone in the loop. I spoke with Jeremy today—a No Parking sign will be on the March Traffic Commission agenda—thank you Mark and Jeremy.

I told neighbors to let me know if obstruction parking continues on this street. ...don't worry Rob and Officer Keen, I'll let you know if it does!!

North Highland Neighborhood appreciates your efforts,
 Jon

Mark – see attached, looks like it is occurring in the evenings/overnight. I have also reached out to the property manager for awareness.

Jon,

It is considered a named street according to the map however in reality it's nothing more than an alley. In order to post no parking signs it would need to go thru Traffic Commission which Jeremy can certainly facilitate. In the interim, if it's blocking the street we can ticket regardless of whether it's posted or not. What time of day does this normally occur?

Thank you.

Greetings all,

A peculiar issue has been brought to my attention in the North Highland neighborhood. Initially, the Whitlock family (Jon & Nancy of the large estate off Prospect) informed me about a truck that parks and blocks the alley near Jackson & Prospect.

Recently, I came to realize the truck (among other cars) is blocking the E-W alley/street running between Prospect and Gardiner. Please click the link to view a Facebook picture post from a respected local resident:
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/northhighlandsquare/permalink/10156683462507788/>

The Whitlocks have also included a couple pictures (see attached).

What would be the best recommendation? Jeremy, the Whitlocks asked for a 'No Parking' sign, that I now see might be a useful idea? Officer Keen, Rob—do you think the best course of action might be ticketing and vigilance when this activity occurs?

I'm not sure if the drive in question is actually considered a street or if it's an alley either—this detail might be useful to the inquiry.

I appreciate your insight!

Best,
Jon
